Opportunity for Full-Time Employment in Mixed Animal Practice

Located in Aberdeen, South Dakota

Northern Plains Animal Health, PC is a well-established, service-focused veterinary practice, serving the surrounding area for the past 25 years. We provide exceptional service to our clients, while maintaining a personal connection with our clients and their animals, both large and small. We are currently a four-doctor practice and are searching for a mixed-animal practitioner to join our team, to allow the current mixed-animal practitioner to phase out of practice over the next few years. Mentorship is an important portion of our team, as we promote collaboration throughout our practice. There are nine team members supporting you in all tasks.

Our current practice breakdown is 15% Cattle and 85% small animal. The cattle portion is split 25% Dairy, 70% cow-calf and 5% feedlot and small ruminant. We utilize digital radiography, digital dental radiography, cautery system, full in-house chemistry and hematology, ultrasound, and a well-stocked in-house lab and surgical suite. Electronic records are utilized throughout the practice, with full integration with the lab and imaging systems. A hydraulic portable chute and an in-house tilting hydraulic chute and haul-in facility are utilized for cattle work. A fully equipped practice vehicle with a vet box is utilized for field work. Safety is stressed when performing any services, especially when working with cattle.

We are seeking a person with strong communication skills that is eager to learn, grow and provide quality service to our clients. Client education is a basis of how we practice. Responsibilities include providing services for both large and small animals, focusing on the large animal portion. This includes providing after hours, emergency, services, on a rotating basis.

The candidate will have a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) or equivalent degree from an accredited institution, and have a license (or ability to obtain a license) to practice veterinary medicine in the state of South Dakota. A strong team player is desired, with the knowledge that there are times when you will work independently.

ASSOCIATE VETERINARIAN – FAULTON/ REDFIELD, SD

Animal Health Center is seeking to hire a full-time or part-time associate veterinarian. Our mixed animal practice consists of 75% cow/calf/backgrounding feedlot and 25% small animal. Our practice has two locations, Faulkton and Redfield. These are cow/calf and farming communities located in north central SD. The area provides two thriving communities with excellent education systems, health care facilities, many successful small businesses, and is agricultural related. The area also provides ample recreational activities such as hunting, fishing, golfing, camping, bowling, movie theaters, and restaurants.

We currently have 2 veterinarians, and 7 support staff members. We emphasize preventive medicine, herd health and nutrition, herd work and open communication with our clientele. We provide routine small animal medical care, soft tissue surgery, dentistry, and emergency services. Our practice is equipped with portable hydraulic chutes, hydraulic tip chutes, haul in facilities, portable corrals, ultrasound, equine stocks, CR X-ray, ultrasonic dental, gas anesthesia, and serum chemistry.

We are interested in either a new graduate or an experienced veterinarian that is motivated, hardworking, well rounded, has excellent communication skills and can practice high quality progressive mixed animal medicine. Interests in other fields are also welcomed as there are additional opportunities for growth in areas beyond our already growing cattle and small animal business. After/hour emergency calls will be split among veterinarians. We offer a competitive salary, health insurance, paid vacation, holiday and sick leave, continuing education, association and professional dues, employer matching simple IRA retirement plan, practice vehicle and required equipment. There is potential for future ownership buy-in. Please contact Dr. John Bode at (605) 598-4500 for more information or send a cover letter and resume to JOHNBODE@HOTMAIL.COM.
